Project FLOW “Proclaim Your Fame” Contest

Volunteer West Virginia announces the “Proclaim your Fame” contest for Project FLOW (Future Leaders of Watersheds) participants. The contest will recognize individuals and teams that exemplify leadership in environmental stewardship through service-learning.

Who Can Enter?

Any individual youth (under the age of 18) or team of youths (group of 2 to 5 youth) involved in a Project FLOW program can enter to win.

Criteria for Entry

Winning applicants will be selected for their Project FLOW community service projects. Each entry will be judged on the following criteria:

- How the service-learning project was exceptional;
- How youth provided leadership that inspired others; and
- Creativity of service-learning projects.

How to Enter

Tell your story and win in one of two ways:

- 1) Send a video or link to a video that is online (maximum 5 minutes)
- 2) Send a written essay (maximum 2000 words) with or without photographs

A completed entry form must accompany the video or essay by November 9, 2009.
